7) Brief note on the Activity:

National Youth Day, observed on January 12th to honor the birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda, was celebrated with great fervor. Various competitions such as Elocution, Power point presentations, Poster exhibition, Video reel competition etc. were organized to inspire and motivate the youth to contribute positively to society.

In conjunction with National Youth Day, Sankranti celebrations added a touch of traditional festivity to the event. The festivities featured traditional ritual of Bhogi mantalu, Rangoli, Mehendi competitions and Traditional dress competitions etc. in which the students participated joyfully and showcased their creativity. A vibrant potluck lunch was also organized during the celebrations, bringing together students and faculty to share traditional dishes and foster cultural exchange.

Overall, the Celebration of National Youth Day and Sankranti at our college served as a platform for students to connect with their cultural heritage, imbibe valuable teachings, and foster a sense of unity and community spirit.
