REPORT

on the Celebration of Poetess Molla's Birth Anniversary

The birth anniversary of the renowned poetess Atukuri Molla was celebrated grandly at Sri Chitturi Indrayya Memorial Government College (Autonomous), Tanuku under the auspices of the Telugu Department. The event was presided over by the college in-charge principal, Smt. A. Maruthi Devi Chowdari.

Speaking on the occasion, Smt. A. Maruthi Devi Chowdari emphasized that Molla holds a significant place in Telugu literature. She highlighted that Molla Ramayanam, authored by the poetess, remains an everlasting literary masterpiece in the hearts of the people. She expressed joy that Molla's birth anniversary is being observed as a state festival.

Head of the Telugu Department, Smt. D. Kanaka Mahalakshmi, stated that Molla belonged to the 16th century and was an extraordinary poetess who gained recognition despite the dominance of the Ashtadiggaja poets of her time. She remarked that achieving such prominence as a female poet in that era was a remarkable feat, possible only due to her profound scholarship. She further noted that Molla was known for narrating the story of the Ramayana in a simple and beautiful style, making it accessible to common people. She expressed pride in celebrating the birth anniversary of such a distinguished literary figure.

The event was attended by Smt. B. S. L. Padmasri, Sri N. Vishnu Vardhan, Sri K. Jeevan Babu, Sri V. Siva Prakash, Smt. G. Kamala Smt. B. Sirisha, along with other faculty members and students.
