NATIONAL EDUCATION DAY

National Education Day is celebrated on 11th November every year to mark the birth anniversary of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, the first Education Minister of independent India. Maulana Azad was a great freedom fighter, scholar, and visionary who believed that education is the most powerful tool for national progress.

During his tenure, several key educational institutions like the University Grants Commission (UGC), Indian Institutes of Technology (IITs), and All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) were established, shaping the foundation of modern Indian education.

The day is observed in schools, colleges, and universities with seminars, essay writing, rallies, and debates to highlight the importance of education in building a strong and inclusive nation.

National Education Day reminds us of Maulana Azad's invaluable contributions and inspires us to work toward his dream of providing quality education to all sections of society.
